

THE COMBUSTION INSTITUTE
EGYPTIAN SECTION

Cairo, July 18, 2014

Activity Report
2012-2014

To be submitted during the bi-annual meeting of the combustion institute members in Seoul, South Korea 31-5 August 2016

The Egyptian section of the combustion institute would like to present its main activities during the period 2014-2016 as listed below:

1. The members of the Egyptian section of the combustion institute are now 45. See attached full list of members.
2. The ninth Mediterranean combustion symposium was held in Rhodes, Greece, during the period 7-11 June 2015. The Egyptian section shares the program organization committee with the Italian and Turkish sections. The Symposium was very successful with more than 260 participants. A total of 170 papers are accepted and 6 plenary lectures are presented during this Symposium. As in our previous Symposia, 85 papers were selected for journal publications: Experimental Thermal and Fluid Science; Combustion Science and Technology; Flow Turbulence and Combustion and Combustion Theory and Modeling.
3. The tenth Mediterranean combustion symposium will be held in Napoli, Italy during the period September 2017, 17-21. The Egyptian section shares the program organization committee with the Italian and Turkish sections. We would like to invite all members of the combustion Institute to participate. The program committee for the next Mediterranean combustion symposium is:
