

WOMEN IN COMBUSTION ADVISORY COMMITTEE APPLICATION FORM

The Combustion Institute is committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion. We are seeking female candidates interested in serving on the newly formed Women in Combustion Advisory Committee. As a committee member you will have the opportunity to contribute your passion and experience towards identifying and advancing the needs of women in combustion and fostering positive change.

Applications are being accepted through 13 October 2023. Committee members will help to organize the upcoming WiC function at the 40th Symposium. Questions regarding the committee should be directed to renny@combustioninstitute.org with the subject line: "WiC Advisory Committee."

Applicant Name:
Applicant Email:
Applicant Affiliation or Section of the CI:

Nominator Name (only if different than Applicant):
Nominator Email:

Statement of Interest:

- Why do you want to join the committee?

- What can you bring to the committee that other members cannot?

- What are your unique qualifications that would benefit the committee?

- Please summarize your involvement in CI activities, such as meeting attendance, publication in CI affiliated journals, etc.

Please return your completed form to renny@combustioninstitute.org.